

[Faint, illegible handwriting, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]

on the following evening, at six o'clock, in our own Room at this address.

With the most car-
dial wishes for your welfare, in which I am joined by Mr Tweedie and all the members of our Committee,

I am,
Dear Mr Garrison,
Very truly yours
Robert Rae

W. Lloyd Garrison Esq

The Freedmen's Committee have found that Tuesday evening, 15th Inst would not be a convenient night for their meeting, and have requested
us to exchange
nights with them,
which we have agreed to do, subject, of course,
to your approval.

The Freedmen's Meeting, therefore, will be held on Monday, 14th Inst, and ours

National Temperance League,

337, Strand,

W.C.

London, Oct 3, 1867.

263

Dear Mr Garrison,

The Comtee
are greatly obliged by your kindness in agreeing
to meet them on your return to London, and they earnestly trust
that your extended stay on the Continent will completely restore
your health.